- Maureen Steinwall, President, Steinwall Inc. (2006 PM100 Winner)
- Ray Wang, Partner - Enterprise Strategy, Altimeter Group, LLC

The PM100 Winners will be honored and presented with their awards at the Progressive Manufacturing Awards Gala to be held on the last day of the Progressive Manufacturing Summit 2010, Seizing the Future: Leadership Strategies for the Recovery and Beyond, May 3-5, at The Breakers in Palm Beach, Florida. More than 200 manufacturing technology executives are expected to attend. In addition to presenting the awards to the PM 100 Winners, Managing Automation Media will announce at the Gala Dinner High Achievers in each of the 8 disciplines, the Editor's Choice and Best of Mastery awards, as well as the 2010 Progressive Manufacturers of the Year at both a large and small company.

When asked about the award, Russ Nagel Executive Vice President said, "Standard products are fast becoming a commodity with price being the only differentiation. With the ability to customize our furniture products in a timely and economical fashion we provide a product that will work better and be competitive for years to come. Our customers know that they do not have to settle on standard, when they have the ability to get exactly what they need to enhance their business."

"As we prepare for the eventual end of the Great Recession, these winning companies dramatically underscore how the manufacturing industry will begin to emerge in an even stronger position once a recovery takes a firm hold," said David R. Brousell, Editor-in-Chief of Managing Automation Media
